Evictions in San Francisco

The San Francisco Rent Board collects data on evictions BUT it does not track:

- 1 where people go after they are evicted
- 2 how many of those people end up homeless
- 3 which landlords are responsible for systematically evicting entire blocks of the city and where they live and work.

The Anti-Eviction Mapping Project

Anti-Eviction Mapping Project

AEMP = collective of "housing justice activists, researchers, data nerds, artists, and oral historians."

Mapping evictions

Raise awareness, show patterns and rationale, build solidarity

Map "The Social Geography of Eviction in LA" by the Anti-Eviction Mapping Project. [Link to map]

LONDON RENTERS UNION

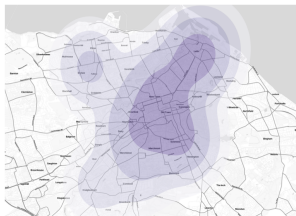

Map landlords' properties so people know where to find other tenants who have the same landlord: identify shared issues organise together.

Examples

- Edinburgh food delivery riders: map risk (link)

Attacks against food delivery riders

Data source: Riders Hazard Mapping project (Google My Maps)
Visualization: Marion Lieutaud | Workers' Observatory

- Brazilian food delivery riders: map danger - emergency button

What should we map?

What are our main issues at work? What are examples of bad incidents? Where do they happen? Where/how do we get support?

Instruction - collective map

Open-source tool for all to use (including drivers we don't know but might want a way to report the things that happen to them.

- ① need to be logged into google maps (or google drive)
- ② open link in google chrome if possible
- ③ add pinned location and include mini description (what happened + month + year, eg "accident, hit by another car while waiting for clients, June 2026")
